

I am strongly opposed to proposed FCC rule changes which will allow more media consolidaton. I think it is very anti-free market and anti-democratic. Promoting more profits for fewer, larger companies is not what a democracy is about. I also object to a process where public input and public disclosure of details of the new ruling has been limited. I want a true democracy.